With a 75% rejection rate on initial SSDI claims, I did not want to take the chance of having to endure the appeals claims process that takes years. Lisa was easy to work with, kind, considerate, knowledgeable of the system. She was very supportive of me as I went through repeated brain surgeries during this process and I received approval within six months of the first time we spoke on the phone. It was easy to reach her by phone and Lisa promptly returned my phone calls. With several states between us, this was very important to me. I would highly recommend this professional to represent your disability claim.

-Linda

Dayton, OH

After calling and talking to you, I was very pleased and impressed with your genial concern and personal interest in your client's medical and personal problems. It was easy talking and opening up to you on the phone. You took the time to really listen. Your knowledge, professionalism, courtesy and congeniality was outstanding in handling the disposition of my claim. I will endorse your services to anyone I hear or overhear needing a representative.
